Summer Camp for Boys

Father/Son Weekend Application
 May 18-20, 2012

We invite campers and their fathers to attend our Fourth-Annual Father-Son weekend, May 18-20, 2012. Our Father-Son Weekend is open to prospective families and currently enrolled campers. The weekend is designed to give campers a taste of what camp is about before attending a full summer session. Campers and their fathers can try out the climbing wall, go canoeing on the lake or a nearby river, take a hike to a nearby waterfall, shoot a rifle, or select from many other activities. Plan to arrive on Friday afternoon and stay until lunch on Sunday for an exciting weekend here at High Rocks! Give us a call or visit our website if you need more details or have questions about the weekend.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK

We, the undersigned parents (or guardians) of the camper named on this application (hereinafter referred to as “the child”), acknowledge that we are aware of all aspects of Camp High Rocks’ program as described through the printed materials, DVD, and website. We have been given ample opportunity to ask any question which we may have about activities and the environment in which the child will live during his attendance at Camp High Rocks. We are aware of the dangers which are inherent in the operation of any children’s camp and in the child’s participation in all camp activities on or off the premises of said camp including swimming, boating, hiking, backpacking, or athletics, including bodily contact, use of tools and equipment in manual arts, arts and crafts, work projects and other programs, tubing, caving, rafting, creek hiking, biking, archery, riflery, sailing, rock climbing, rappelling, ropes course, canoeing, kayaking, fishing, horseback riding, camping out, outdoor-living skills and vehicular travel. We further acknowledge that we have given Camp High Rocks full disclosure of any pre-existing physical or mental defects, challenges or problems regarding our child.

RELEASE

Because of the potential dangers inherent in participating in the activities of any children’s camp, we recognize the importance of the child’s obeying the instructions of camp employees and abiding by all camp rules and regulations. We have instructed the child to obey said employees and to abide by said rules and regulations, and we do hereby release Camp High Rocks, Inc. and the officers, directors and stockholders of Camp High Rocks, Inc., and all of the staff, counselors and other employees of Camp High Rocks, Inc., from any liability which they might otherwise incur as a consequence of the failure of the child or his father to obey said employees and abide by said rules and regulations and from any other liability, which said camp and the other parties listed above might otherwise incur in incidents involving the child or his father’s negligence or contributory negligence. I agree that any dispute between Camp High Rocks, Inc., its owners, officers, directors, employees, contractors, volunteers and me shall be governed by the substantive laws of the State of North Carolina, and that any mediation or suit initiated for me and/or on behalf of my minor child named above shall occur or be filed in Transylvania County, North Carolina.

If outside medical services (x-rays, lab tests, etc.) should be needed, we understand that we are financially responsible. We grant permission to use photographs or video that includes the adult and/or child for camp advertising and on the Camp High Rocks web page.
